

GETTING THE LOVE YOU WANT

Imago Couples Workshop

Stephen R. Plumlee, PhD, Presenter

April 12 & 13, 2008
Sarasota, Florida

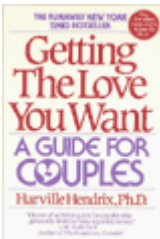

A Two-Day Workshop Equal to Months of Therapy

Benefit from a weekend that can transform your relationship forever! The IMAGO couples workshop is an experience in discovering yourself, your partner, and your relationship. When relationships go bad, many couples end the union thinking they have found the solution to their problem. They unconsciously find someone else who is similar to the person they left. It becomes a never-ending cycle...different face, same behavior.

The Imago Approach

Guiding couples through the process †

Based on the work of Harville Hendrix, PhD, founder and pioneer of Imago Couples Therapy, couples are instructed in understanding their communication styles and learn new methods for mutual healing and growth, helping to build a union that lasts forever.

What You Can Expect from the Workshop

- New communication styles.
- New tools to turn conflict into healing
- Learning how to create a conscious union
- How to re-establish intimacy
- A safe experience for you and your partner

Stephen R. Plumlee, PhD has 25 years experience as a psychotherapist, couples therapist and spiritual director. He specializes in IMAGO oriented couples therapy.
